MYRIAD GARDENS LIGHTS UP THE HOLIDAYS DURING DOWNTOWN IN DECEMBER

October 30, 2009 (Oklahoma City) - The Myriad Botanical Gardens will put on a dazzling display of brilliant holiday lights during Downtown OKC's annual holiday extravaganza Downtown in December, November 22 through December 31.

The OG&E Garden Lights display will brighten up the frosty nights outside while the Gardens' tropical splendor of the Crystal Bridge Tropical Conservatory will warm things up indoors. Either way, it will be a holiday paradise not to be missed!

The Crystal Bridge will be open FREE to the public from 6 – 9 p.m. Nov. 29, Dec. 6, 13, 20, and 27.

OG&E Garden Lights will illuminate the 17-acre outdoor grounds as tens of thousands of gleaming holiday lights adorn the trees creating a magical garden aglow in color – perfect for romantic strolls and family walks. Don't miss the spectacular views of the gardens and the downtown skyline from the plaza above the Gardens' Water Stage.

Regular Crystal Bridge hours are 9 a.m. – 6 p.m. Monday through Saturday and noon – 6 p.m. Sunday. The Crystal Bridge is closed Thanksgiving, Christmas Eve and New Year's Day. Admission is $6 for adults, $5 for students and seniors and $3 for children ages 4 -12.

The Myriad Botanical Gardens is located at Reno and Robinson in the heart of downtown Oklahoma City. For information, call (405) 297-3995 or log on to www.myriadgardens.com.

The Myriad Botanical Gardens is proud to be a part of Downtown in December - downtown Oklahoma City's winter celebration. Downtown in December activities run from the day after Thanksgiving (Nov 22) through the New Year.
